Comparing attendance of museums and galleries in England.

Introduction

We have collected the information showing the amount of people attending your enterprises in 2013, 2015 and 2017. Presented numbers afford us to examine problems, appeared in mentioned years, and suggest the ways of their solving.

Consequences and reasons

Visits to British Museum and National Gallery provide the information that rates are dropping to less than one million (from 2015 ~~until~~ 2017) than it was in previous period of time (approximately 1.5 mln visits from 2013 to 2015). The main reason is the Internet and technologies, providing a lot of information, so these equipments appeal more for users, especially teenagers and students. Comparisons of Natural History Museum and Science Museum introduce us how admission charges can influence on visitor's attitude. When it comes to decision to pay for something or not, people usually choose to not spend money, even something was free in the past.

Solution

To increase the amount of attenders we recommend you to set digital screens, tablets and other developed technologies what will cause huge stream of young people. If there is lack of receiving money, open some charities and foundations so visitors will attend your museums and galleries more respectively. Advertisement may also help to make big fame and popularity.

Conclusion

To sum up, success can only be achieved keeping up with modern trends. We just literally to read minds.
