It was a trip I'll never forget.

My family and I decided to travel by car in one our republic's region. We wanted to see beautiful lakes and forests, make a lot of animals' photos. Also my sister had never moved outside our town and it had been very challenging for us.

We packed our stuff and warm clothes in bags, took some food for our trip and left Kyzyl. We were sure it'll be unforgettable.

"We'll stop in this forest", said my father. He is very kind person with lots of good characteristics. He can be good friend, he can be strict teacher, he can give us everything what we want. He was contactor our Rewildering tourism.

We stopped our car near special place where tourists always stop. My sister was very confused, because there wasn't Internet in ~~her~~ her phone. "Jenny, could you find some flowers for your Mum?" asked Dad. Jenny is 5 years old. She is nice and very friendly girl but she likes sit at home and surf the Net.

Sister took flowers and gave it to Mum. She smiled and started play with my sister. Dad closed her eyes and asked who it was. Jenny smiled. I took that photo.

I understood that my family had become more united. It was a pleasure and it'll be a warm memory I'll never forget.
